25X1

1. By memorandum of 21 August 1980, we presented the CIA Training Selection Board with the nomination of Mr. Thomas H. White as the Administration Directorate's candidate for the 1981-82 Executive Seminar in National and International Affairs. We are pleased to have this opportunity to reaffirm our earlier nomination of Mr. White as a primary candidate for this seminar. As previously noted, Mr. White, an SIS-03, serves as our Director of Information Services. He has distinguished himself as a fine young executive with excellent potential and leadership ability. Mr. White has clearly demonstrated high potential for continued contribution at more senior levels in the Agency. He possesses a valuable reservoir of knowledge and experience and we are confident that he would make a substantial contribution as a seminar participant and represent the Agency in an outstanding manner.
